

LET'S PLAY CHURCH

By Nan Allen

Theme: Evangelism

Scripture References: Matthew 28:19, John 4:35, John 12:32, Romans 1:16, Jude 23

Characters: Ten+

Narrator
Greeter
Church (several people)
Lost Person
Church Member #1
Music Director
Pastor
Usher

Tone: Light to serious

Synopsis: The Church service has begun. As the members go through their routine, a lost person gets the "cold shoulder."

Running Time: Three to four minutes

Set: a lectern or pulpit

Chairs (enough for each person) OR pews

Props: Bibles

Hymnals

Offering plate(s)

NARRATOR: Church. It's a place we all love. We gather in it to worship, to fellowship, to share with each other. But sometimes, we get so focused on having our own spiritual and personal needs met... that we overlook one very important function of the church.

(lights up)

(Scene opens as Church begins to assemble)(Greeter enters first)

GREETER: Welcome. Welcome. Come now to church.

CHURCH: (as they enter) (speaking randomly) Ah...Church.

Yes...Church...church....church...(voices trailing out)

(Lost Person enters behind the others)

LOST PERSON: Church?

CHURCH: (together) Yes!

LOST PERSON: What's that?