

LOTTIE'S DREAM

By Nan Allen

Theme: Missions

Scripture References: John 1:41-42; John 4:35; Acts 8:4

Characters: One (female)

Tone: Serious

Synopsis: The mother of the famous Baptist missionary, Lottie Moon, thinks out loud, contemplating her daughter's passion and call to foreign missions.

Running Time: Two minutes

Set: None

Props:

Apron

Mixing bowl with green beans

(Mrs. Moon is dressed in a simple, but nice dress with an apron over it. She is carrying a bowl or pan with green beans in it.)

MRS. MOON: (entering from stage right) (calling) Lottie! Lottie! Lottie Moon! (to herself) Oh, where is that child? (calling) Lottie! It's time for supper! (to herself) That child...probably off dreaming somewhere. I'll declare, that child is forever dreaming. (calling) Lottie! (to herself) Always dreaming about feeding children and taking the gospel to places that, why I never even heard of! (calling)